FIRST READING:

Genesis 2:15-17; 3:1-7

GOSPEL:

Matthew 4:1-11

THE DEVIL VS. IDENTITY

The devil presents Jesus with three proposed actions that have highly desirable outcomes. If Jesus accepts the devil's options, he can address extensive food insecurity for many in the Roman world by turning stones into bread. This is a brilliant idea. He can also gain power over all the empires of the world. Here the Gospel makes a crucial political statement in revealing the devil as the power that controls the Roman Empire. And Jesus can rely on God's protection in a dramatic public and attention-getting display.

In fact, Matthew's Gospel will later narrate Jesus performing powerful acts: feeding crowds (14:13–21; 15:32–39), gaining all authority in heaven and earth in his resurrection (28:18) and return (24:27–31; 26:64), and publicly displaying God's power and compassion in healings and exorcisms (4:23–25).

Yet Jesus rejects the devil's invitations. Why? If Jesus acts on the devil's bidding, he becomes the agent or son of the devil. He ceases to be the agent or son of God. He would betray his identity. — Warren Carter, Working Preacher

FELLOWSHIP OF FAITH

Clarence C. Stoughton, former president of Wittenberg University in Springfield, OH, once wrote, “Stewardship is everything we do after we say, ‘I believe.’” This Lent, as we ponder the truth that the saving love of God resets our priorities, Pastor Andrew will partner with the Stewardship Team to hold a six-week Fellowship of Faith series exploring the wide-ranging ways that we are called to be stewards. We’ll look at stewardship across the four corners of our ministry – Prayer (February 22), Generosity (March 1, 8, 15), Service (March 22), and Community (March 29). Join us this Lent as we reflect on how God calls us to use what we’ve been given for our growth and for the good of others.

This year, Holy Trinity is participating in a synod-wide Lenten series. While we will follow the traditional lectionary readings, we will also read A Watered Garden by Ben Stewart as we explore Christian worship and Earth’s ecology.

Each participant will receive a copy of the book. Copies are available in the Welcome Center.

As part of the series, a workshop will be held on Saturday, March 7 from 9 a.m. to noon. at Holy Cross Lutheran Church on Six Mile in Livonia.

FROM OUR FRIENDS AT SAMARITAS

Dear Holy Trinity Members,

Holy Trinity donated 200+ items, but that's an estimate, probably on the low end. The church donated men's, women's and children's new and used winter coats, hats, scarves, mittens, boots, and warm winter clothing like sweaters. This has been able to help SO many of our clients, many of whom are from warmer climates. As I've mentioned before, rent and food are the top priorities spending-wise for our families, so it has been great to be able to help in keeping their families warm especially in the frigid temperatures this winter, when they otherwise may have had to go without.

Thank you so much again for your ongoing support.. We really cherish and value Holy Trinity as one of our partners, and I can't say enough how much the members have helped our refugee clients.

Sincerely,

Courtney Hedeman
Refugee Volunteer Coordinator
Samaritas

MAKE A LUNCH — MAKE GOD'S LOVE REAL

Join us in the Fellowship Hall on Sunday, February 22 to make NOAH lunches for some of God's most beloved children.

This ministry feeds hungry people in downtown Detroit. Lunches are served out of Central United Methodist Church on Woodward Avenue.

FELLOWSHIP OF FAITH

What is the relationship between our life as people of faith and our lives as citizens? How are we as Lutheran Christians called to participate faithfully and responsibly in our civic life? These questions are at the heart of the ELCA's newest social statement,

"Faith and Civic Life: Seeking the Well-being of All," adopted by a vote of 762 to 16 at the 2025 Church Assembly. Join Pastor Andrew this Sunday as we continue a Fellowship of Faith series on this important and timely document and how it can help guide our thinking on these questions and more.
